

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

-----X
MARIA GARCIA,

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff hereby demands a trial by jury on all issues so triable.

Plaintiff,

ACTION UNDER 29 U.S.C. § 216(b)

-v.-

COMPLAINT

RAY'S SMOOTHIES INC.,
ANTONIO HERREROS and ANA VERGEL,
individually,

Defendants
-----X

Plaintiff MARIA GARCIA, by and through her attorneys, STILLMAN LEGAL PC., brings this Action on behalf of herself and other similarly situated employees of Defendants RAY'S SMOOTHIES INC., ANTONIO HERREROS, and ANA VERGEL, Individually (collectively, the "Defendants") pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act ("FLSA"), 29 USC §§ 201 et seq., the New York Labor Law ("NYLL") § 650 et seq., as recently amended by the Wage Theft Prevention Act ("WTPA"), NYLL § 195(3), NYLL § 191, and related provisions from Title 12 of New York Codes, Rules, and Regulations ("NYCRR"), and alleges upon information and belief, as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This Complaint seeks to recover, inter alia, unpaid minimum and overtime wage compensation for Plaintiff, a former employee of Defendant RAY'S SMOOTHIES INC., a New York Corporation with offices at 1320 Jerome Ave, Bronx, NY 10452, and its principal, Defendants ANTONIO HERREROS and ANA VERGEL, where Plaintiff was employed primarily as a cook, she also assisted customers and sold the products.

2. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants were required, under relevant New York State law, to pay and compensate Plaintiff at a minimum rate of $15.00 per hour (the “minimum wage”); however, Plaintiff was only compensated at a rate of $10 per hour for 40 hours workweek.

3. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants were required, under relevant New York State law, to compensate Plaintiff with overtime pay at one and one-half the regular rate for work over forty (40) hours per work week.

4. However, despite such mandatory pay obligations, Defendants only compensated Plaintiff at a rate of (I) $10 per hour and failed to pay Plaintiff her lawful overtime pay for that period from October 2021 until March 16, 2024, where she regularly worked in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek.

5. Defendants’ conduct extended beyond Plaintiff to all other similarly situated employees; and at all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintain a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and other employees to work without providing the overtime compensation required by federal and state law and regulations.

6. Plaintiff also brings this action under the Wage Theft Prevention Act for Defendants’ failure to provide written notice of wage rates in violation of said laws. Moreover, at all relevant times, Defendants failed to maintain accurate record keeping as required by the FLSA and the NYLL.

7. Accordingly, Plaintiff now brings this Action on behalf of herself and those other similarly situated individuals, for federal and state claims relating to unpaid minimum wages, overtime wages, unpaid spread-of-hours wages, failure to maintain records pursuant to the FLSA, 29 USC §§ 201 et seq., NYLL § 650 et seq., as recently amended by the WTPA, NYLL § 195(3), as well as those related provisions in Title 12 of the NYCRR.

8. In connection therewith, Plaintiff seeks compensatory damages, liquidated damages, spread of hours pay, pre-judgment and post-judgment interest, and attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to the FLSA and NYLL.

9. Plaintiff further seeks certification of this action as an individual action on behalf of herself, individually pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

10. This Court has jurisdiction over this action under 28 USC § 1331, 29 USC §§ 216(b)(c), and 217; and 28 USC § 1337.

11. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over the New York state law claims under the principles of pendent and ancillary jurisdiction pursuant to 28 USC § 1367.

12. This Court is empowered to issue a declaratory judgment pursuant to 28 USC §§ 2201 and 2202.

13. Venue is proper in the Southern District of New York, pursuant 28 USC § 1391(b)(c), because Corporate Defendants reside in this District, Plaintiff resides in this District, and because all or a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred herein.

PARTIES

Plaintiff

14. Plaintiff MARIA GARCIA ("" ) is and was at all times relevant hereto an individual residing in the City and State of New York.

15. Plaintiff was employed by RAY'S SMOOTHIES INC., a New York Corporation, at its offices at 1320 Jerome Ave, Bronx, NY 10452, from approximately October 2021 until March 16, 2024, where her primary work duty was as a cook, she also assisted customers and sold the products.

16. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff was a covered employee within the meaning of the FLSA and the NYLL.

17. Plaintiff consents to being named a party herein, pursuant to 29 USC § 216(b), and brings these claims based upon the allegations herein as representative parties of a prospective class of similarly situated individuals under 29 USC § 216(b).

Defendants

18. Defendant RAY'S SMOOTHIES INC. is, upon information and belief, a duly organized New York Corporation with its places of business located at 1320 Jerome Ave, Bronx, NY 10452.

19. Upon information and belief, Defendant RAY'S SMOOTHIES INC. is engaged in interstate commerce, in that it relies heavily on products that have been transported across state lines, and generates annual gross revenues in excess of $500,000 per year, independent of excise taxes, for 2024, and were directly engaged in interstate commerce.

20. Upon information and belief, Defendants ANTONIO HERREROS and ANA VERGEL are the President, Chief Executive Officer, manager, principal, or agent of Defendant RAY'S SMOOTHIES INC.

21. Upon information and belief, and at all times relevant to the claims herein, Defendants ANTONIO HERREROS and ANA VERGEL possessed operational control over Defendant RAY'S SMOOTHIES INC. by reason of their ownership interest, and control of significant functions of Defendant Corporation that Defendants ANTONIO HERREROS and ANA VERGEL: (i) were known and referred to as "Boss" by Plaintiff and the other similarly situated employees of Defendant RAY'S SMOOTHIES INC.; (ii) determined the wages and compensation of the employees of Defendants, including Plaintiff; and (iii) established Plaintiff's and other employees work schedules and workload; (iv) maintained employee records; (v) paid Plaintiff and the other employees their weekly wages; and (vi) possessed the authority to hire and fire employees.

22. Defendants ANTONIO HERREROS and ANA VERGEL acted intentionally and maliciously and is an employer pursuant to FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §203d, and regulations promulgated thereunder, 29 C.F.R. §791.2.

COMMON FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS
Defendants Constitute Joint Employers

23. Defendants owned and operated RAY'S SMOOTHIES INC., a corporate entity principally engaged in Westchester, New York. At all relevant times, Defendants RAY'S SMOOTHIES INC., ANTONIO HERREROS, and ANA VERGEL possessed operational control over the Defendant Corporation, possessed an ownership interest in the Defendant Corporation, and/or controlled significant functions of Defendant Corporation.

24. As part of their regular business practice, Defendants intentionally, willfully, and repeatedly harmed Plaintiff MARIA GARCIA and the other class member employees by engaging in a pattern and/or policy of violating the FLSA. This pattern and/or policy includes, inter alia, the following:

- a. failing to pay employees the applicable minimum rate for work performed for the first forty (40) hours per week;
- b. failing to pay employees the applicable overtime rate (one and one-half the rate of regular pay) for work performed in excess of forty (40) hours per week
- c. failing to keep accurate records of hours worked by employees as required by the FLSA and NYLL.
- d. failing to provide statutorily required wage and hour records or statements of pay received, in part to hide Defendants' violations of the wage and hour laws, and to take advantage of Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees' relative lack of sophistication in wage and hour laws.

25. Defendants have engaged in their unlawful conduct pursuant to a corporate policy of minimizing labor costs and denying employees compensation. Defendants' unlawful conduct has been intentional, willful, and in bad faith, and has caused significant damage to Plaintiff MARIA GARCIA and the other class members.

26. Defendant RAY'S SMOOTHIES INC., under the direct supervision and authority of Defendants ANTONIO HERREROS and ANA VERGEL, acted in the interest of the Defendants with respect to its employees, the rate of and method employee compensation was paid and shared joint control over their employees.

27. At relevant times, Defendants RAY'S SMOOTHIES INC., ANTONIO HERREROS, and ANA VERGEL possessed substantial control over the Plaintiffs' and other similarly situated employees' working conditions and over the policies and practices with respect to the employment and compensation of Plaintiff and all similarly situated individuals, referred to herein.

28. Defendants RAY'S SMOOTHIES INC., ANTONIO HERREROS, and ANA VERGEL jointly employed Plaintiff and all similarly situated individuals and are Plaintiff's and all similarly situated individuals' employers within the meaning of 29 USC 201 et seq. and the NYLL.

29. Defendants RAY'S SMOOTHIES INC., ANTONIO HERREROS, and ANA VERGEL constitute a single employer of Plaintiff and/or similarly situated individuals, as any business divisions between them are fictional.

30. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants RAY'S SMOOTHIES INC., ANTONIO HERREROS, and ANA VERGEL were Plaintiff's employers within the meaning of the FLSA, NYLL, and other applicable laws. Such Defendants had the authority and power to hire and fire Plaintiff, and other similarly situated employees, control the terms and conditions of their employment, including work assignments and hours, and determine the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for Plaintiffs' services. Indeed, Defendants supervised Plaintiff's work schedule and conditions of her employment.

31. Defendants further controlled, supervised, guided, and instructed what limited recordkeeping took place, which Plaintiff contends is deficient pursuant to FLSA and NYLL requirements.

Plaintiff MARIA GARCIA

32. Plaintiff worked from approximately October 2021 until March 16, 2024. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants at their 1320 Jerome Ave, Bronx, NY 10452 facility, where Plaintiff's work duties included, but were not limited to, preparing and cooking food, assisting customers, and selling the products.

33. Plaintiff worked six days per week, Monday to Saturday, Monday to Wednesday from 6:00 A.M. until 4:00 P.M., Thursday to Saturday from 6:00 A.M. until 3:00 P.M. For approximately fifty-seven (57) hours per week.

34. From October 15, 2021, until December 31, 2021, Plaintiff was paid $10 per hour, the underpayment per week was $412.50, and the total underpayment of that period was $4,537. From January 1, 2022, until December 31, 2022, Plaintiff was paid $10 per hour, the underpayment per week was $412.50, and the total underpayment of that period was $21,450. From January 1, 2023, until December 31, 2023, Plaintiff was paid $10 per hour, the underpayment per week was $412.50, and the total underpayment of that period was $21,450. From January 1, 2024, until March 16, 2024, Plaintiff was paid $10 per hour, the underpayment per week was $478, and the total underpayment of that period was $5,258. The total amount of unpaid wages is approximately $52,695. All the payments were made in cash.

35. Plaintiff did not work at her own convenience but was required to report to work in accordance with a work schedule devised by Defendants. Moreover, once scheduled for a shift, Plaintiff did not come and go at her pleasure but rather was controlled by Defendants.

36. Plaintiff was a covered employee within the meaning of the FLSA and the NYLL and was not exempt thereunder as her employment position and assignments were not “professional,” “executive,” or even “administrative” and did not require discretion nor independent judgment. The plaintiff’s work is properly characterized as menial physical labor.

37. Plaintiff regularly handled goods in interstate commerce and other items produced outside of the State of New York.

38. Plaintiff worked without appropriate minimum and overtime wages from the beginning and until the end of her employment with Defendants.

39. No notification, either in the form of posted notices, or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff regarding wages as required under the FLSA and NYLL.

40. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff with each payment of wages an accurate statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

41. Defendants never provided Plaintiff with written notice of her rate of pay, employer’s regular payday, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

Defendants’ General Employment Practices

42. As part of their regular business practices, Defendants required Plaintiff MARIA GARCIA to work without paying Plaintiff the proper minimum and overtime wages as required by federal and state laws.

43. By such common policy and practice, Defendants violated Plaintiff’s rights under the FLSA and New York Labor Law by not paying her the wages she was owed for the hours she had worked.

44. Defendants failed to post the statutorily required wage and hour posters and did not provide Plaintiff MARIA GARCIA with statutorily required wage and hour records or statements of pay received, in part so as to hide Defendants' violations of the wage and hour laws, and to take advantage of Plaintiff's relative lack of sophistication in wage and hour laws.

45. Upon information and belief, these practices by Defendants were done willfully to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiff worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiff properly for (i) her full hours worked, (ii) minimum wages, and (iii) overtime wages.

46. The NYLL and Wage Theft Prevention Act require employers to provide all employees with written notice of wage rates.

47. Throughout the relevant time period, Defendants paid Plaintiff MARIA GARCIA wages without providing an accurate accompanying wage statement and/or annual pay notices required under NYLL §§195(1) and 195(3).

48. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff MARIA GARCIA with accurate accompanying wage statements at the time of payment of wages, containing: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; the name of the employee; the name of the employer; address, and phone number of the employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked, and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL §195(3).

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
(Violation of FLSA Minimum and Overtime Wage / Recordkeeping Provisions)

49. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

50. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were Plaintiffs' employers within the meaning of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 USC § 203(d). Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff, control the terms and conditions of employment, and determine the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for her employment.

51. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were engaged in commerce or in an industry or activity affecting commerce, and as such constitute an enterprise within the meaning of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 USC § 203 (r-s).

52. Defendants, in violation of the FLSA, failed to pay Plaintiff the applicable minimum and overtime compensation at rates of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for each hour worked in excess of forty hours in a workweek, in violation of 29 U.S.C. § 207 (a)(1).

53. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff the applicable minimum and overtime wage was willful within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 255(a).

54. Defendants failed to satisfy the FLSA's recordkeeping requirements.

55. Defendants acted willfully in their violations of the FLSA's requirements.

56. Plaintiff (and the FLSA class members) seeks damages for her unpaid lawful minimum and overtime wages, liquidated damages as provided by the FLSA for wage violations, attorneys' fees and costs, and such other legal and equitable relief as this Court deems just and proper. Damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
(Unpaid Minimum and Overtime Wages Under New York Labor Law)

57. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

58. Defendants, in violation of the NYLL § 190 et seq. and associated rules and regulations, failed to pay Plaintiff minimum wages and the applicable overtime compensation at rates of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for each hour worked in excess of forty hours in a workweek.

59. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff minimum and overtime wages was willful within the meaning of N.Y.Lab.Law § 663.

60. Due to Defendants' willful violations of the NYLL, Plaintiff MARIA GARCIA is entitled to recover from Defendants her unpaid minimum wages, overtime wages, liquidated damages as provided for by the NYLL, reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and pre-judgment and post-judgment interest.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

New York Labor Law – Failure to Provide Notice at Time of Hiring

61. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

62. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff at the time of hiring or at any point thereafter, a notice containing the rate of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; the regular payday designated by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business; the telephone number of the employer, and anything otherwise required by law, in violation of NYLL § 195(1).

63. Due to Defendants' violations of the NYLL § 195(1), Plaintiff is entitled to recover from Defendants statutory damages of Fifty dollars ($50) per workday that the violation occurred, up to a maximum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) pursuant to NYLL § 198 (1-b).

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

New York Labor Law – Failure to Provide Accurate Wage Statements

64. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

65. Defendants have failed to provide Plaintiff with complete and accurate wage statements throughout her employment listing, inter alia, all her regular and any overtime hours of work, her rate of pay, and the basis of pay, in violation of NYLL § 195(3).

66. Due to Defendants' violations of the NYLL, Plaintiff is entitled to recover from Defendants' statutory damages of Two Hundred and Fifty dollars ($250) per workday that the violation occurred, up to a maximum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), pursuant to NYLL § 198 (1-d).

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff MARIA GARCIA respectfully requests that this Court enter judgment against Defendants RAY'S SMOOTHIES INC., ANTONIO HERREROS, and ANA VERGEL, as follows:

- a. Designation of this action as a collective action on behalf of the FLSA Class Members (asserting FLSA claims and state claims) and prompt issuance of a notice pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) to all similarly situated members of the FLSA opt-in class, apprising them of the pendency of this action, and permitting them to assert timely FLSA claims and state claims in this action by filing individual Consent to Sue forms pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b);
- b. Declaring that Defendants' violation of the provisions of the FLSA was willful as to Plaintiff;
- c. Declaring that Defendants have violated the minimum and overtime wage provisions of, and associated rules and regulations under, the FLSA as to Plaintiff;

d. Awarding Plaintiff liquidated damages in an amount equal to 100% of her damages for the amount of unpaid minimum and overtime wages, and damages for any improper deductions or credits taken against wages under the FLSA as applicable pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b);

e. Awarding Plaintiff damages for the amount of unpaid minimum and overtime wages, and damages for any improper deductions or credits taken against wages under the FLSA as applicable;

f. Declaring that Defendants have violated the recordkeeping requirements of the NYLL with respect to Plaintiff's compensation, hours, wages; and any deductions or credits taken against wages;

g. Awarding Plaintiff damages for the amount of unpaid minimum and overtime wages, damages for any improper deductions or credits taken against wages;

h. Awarding Plaintiff liquidated damages in an amount equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the total amount of minimum and overtime wage compensation shown to be owed pursuant to NYLL § 663 as applicable;

i. Awarding Plaintiff pre-judgment and post-judgment interest as applicable;

j. Awarding Plaintiff the expenses incurred in this action, including costs and attorney's fees; and

k. All such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

l. An award of statutory damages for Defendants' failure to provide Plaintiff with wage notices at the time of her respective hiring, or at any point thereafter, pursuant to NYLL § 198 (1-b);

m. An award of statutory damages for Defendants' failure to provide Plaintiff with complete and accurate wage statements pursuant to NYLL § 198 (1-d);

n. An award of pre-judgment interest of nine percent per annum (9%) pursuant to the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules §§ 5001-5004;

o. An award of post-judgment interest pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1961 and/or the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules § 5003;

p. Such other relief as this Court shall deem just and proper.
